Memorandum

TO : Director, DCS
Attn : Alien Staff
FROM : Chief, [ ] Office
SUBJECT: Case 32254 -- Fred Z. Launags

DATE: 12 April 1968
POR-27-68

1. On 11 April 1968 the Portland Resident Agency received a call from a Mr. Lewelling, Internal Revenue Service, Portland, Oregon. Mr. Lewelling said that his office had received a couple of letters from subject, the nature of which was not disclosed, and asked if we knew Launags' present address. He said that he had attempted to locate a tax return filed last year by Launags but was unable to do so.
2. We informed Mr. Lewelling that the last address we had for subject, which was 11 March 1968, was the Hotel Hope, 735 S. Hope Street, Los Angeles, California 90017.
3. Mr. Lewelling said he was somewhat puzzled over our connection with Launags. We told him that we had been of some assistance in locating employment for him, and that Launags had worked in Oregon for short intervals between March 1967 and June 1967 when he left for San Francisco. We told Mr. Lewelling that Launags was somewhat unstable and that we did not know his present occupation. Mr. Lewelling said that it was apparent from his letters that Launags was probably psychotic.
4. We did not disclose any Agency affiliation with Launags in our discussion with Mr. Lewelling, and it appears that he is unwitting of such.
